INTRODUCTION: This item is to request that the City Council Receive the 2018-2019 Progress Report from Holly Hansen, Community Outreach Coordinator.

BACKGROUND:

The Community Outreach Coordinator, in consultation with City Staff, promotes the City Council goals of economic vitality and encouraging and increasing public awareness of City policies, programs and decisions by investigating effective methods of two-way communication. The consultant works with City staff, as well as other City organizations, ensuring that the City continues its commitment to open and honest government and strives to consistently meet the community's expectations by providing excellent service, in a positive and timely manner, and in the full view of the public. This position has been responsible for managing the outreach and communication effort to promote awareness and understanding of City Government policies, programs, decisions, as well as promoting and marketing the City in promoting the business and economic development interests within the community.

RECOMMENDATION:

The item tonight is to receive an informational presentation from Holly Hansen, Community Outreach Coordinator, on the 2018-2019 Activities to date.
